

Associate Pastor

The Hague, Netherlands

American Protestant Church of The Hague seeks a dynamic, Christ-centered, Associate Pastor to become part of a richly diverse international, inter-denominational English-speaking congregation. The Associate Pastor will partner with the Senior Pastor and Church Council to carry out the church's mission by further developing and growing specific ministry areas. Primary giftedness in Music & Worship and/or Youth Leadership as well as an affinity with either adult discipleship, missional living, ministry operations and/or pastoral care is essential. The candidate must be mature in the Christian faith, well nurtured and prepared in the Protestant tradition and in excellent all-around health. Full-time, local salary and benefits package. For a more detailed opportunity description and application requirements, please visit www.apch.nl/associate-pastor-search